

Jeremy ROLLESTON

Two-time Olympian, Australian representative in two sports, CEO, author and sought after speaker.

AUSTRALIAN OLYMPIC COMMITTEE

"Jeremy is a first class motivational speaker, who presents with passion, excitement and a strong sense of pride and humility. He easily connects with any audience, large or small, to business people and others alike with his unique stories and energetic style. Jeremy continues to work with the AOC, adding enthusiasm and enjoyment to many of our events."

ING BANK

"The feedback from all of the managers, without exception, was fantastic. They were inspired by his determination and focus and impressed with how Jeremy was able to link the lessons he learnt from his success in sport to success in business ... they are still talking about it today."

SMEC

"Jeremy is an outstanding speaker with not only a wealth of experience in both business and sport, but an undeniable passion and vision for success. He has the ability to communicate deeply rooted experiences and captivate his audience regardless of the background. Highly recommended."

COACH - NETHERLANDS OLYMPIC BEACH VOLLEYBALL

"Our girls were transfixed and focussed during Jeremy's sessions. The attention was sharp and not because Jeremy demanded that - he just made them want to listen. He was interesting, passionate and believable. He inspired them and the girls were jump-started to a new level of what is possible. World Championships here we come."

CBA

"His knowledge and expertise were not only evident in the seminar he presented but also in the practical workshop he delivered to our staff. I would definitely look to get Jeremy back in the future."

There is no substitute for experience and there is no doubt Jeremy Rolleston speaks with the authority of experience. From captaining Australian teams and competing in Olympic Games, to the pressure of investment banking with the likes of Goldman Sachs, to running Fashion Shows. It is rare to find someone with such broad experience and success.

He draws upon a lifetime of heartaches and successes to inspire others to follow their dreams (without regret), to be all they can be, and to achieve success not just in sport or in business but in life in general.

But more than that, leveraging his book 'A Life That Counts', Jeremy focusses on sharing practical tools, techniques and strategies to put this inspiration into action. Not just sharing what to do, but just as importantly, sharing how to do it. As a result, he has become a sought-after speaker.

There is no substitute for experience and there is no doubt Jeremy Rolleston speaks with the authority of experience.

Jeremy is a two-time Olympian, has represented his country in two sports (rugby and bobsleigh), and most recently (after retiring from Olympic competition) won two world titles at the World Surf Life Saving Championships.

At the same time Jeremy has maintained a successful corporate career. He is currently CEO of Active8me and previous to that was Managing Director at Artesian Venture Partners, General Manager - Institutional Business at Perpetual Investments and Executive Director at investment banking firm Goldman Sachs JBWere.

Jeremy's journey definitely hasn't been smooth though. He draws upon many heartaches as well as successes, to inspire and motivate audiences to live a life with passion; to go after their dreams without regret; and to achieve the extraordinary. His talks weave intriguing stories with lessons from his sporting and business experiences, and deliver practical learnings for today's personal and business performance challenges.

Jeremy is author of 'A Life That Counts' (together with contributions from 10 famous Australians). He has appeared on Fox Sports, Sunrise, The Today Show, Sky News, ABC, Fitness First and Wide World of Sports, and his clients include the likes of ING, the Australian Olympic Committee, GSK, Novartis, CBA, SMEC, Halogen and the NSW Institute of Sport.

He has spoken to audiences as large as 10,000 and facilitated much smaller 'C-level' workshops. Visit www.jeremyrolleston.com for more details.

"I love the opportunity to inspire, motivate and equip people to be all that they can be and to live a successful, purposeful and extraordinary life. My hope is that people will not walk out the same after hearing me as when they walked in. And more than that, I hope that they won't just leave my talk motivated, but equipped and armed with practical tools, strategies and ideas that they can implement in their real, daily lives. So they can make things happen and truly their goals and dreams into reality."
